

Video https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QcYNj61jyE4&t=72s&ab_channel=ABCKiddosTime

The jolly man in a red suit who brings gifts on Christmas Eve.

Santa's magical flying helpers, like Rudolph with his shiny red nose.

A vehicle Santa uses to travel from house to house on Christmas Eve.

Santa's little helpers who make toys in his workshop.

The surprises people give each other during the holiday season.

A decorated tree, often an evergreen that is a central part of Christmas celebrations.

Ornaments and lights used to adorn the Christmas tree and homes.

Large socks hung by the fireplace for Santa to fill with small gifts.

Sweet, peppermint flavored treats shaped like canes.

A house made of gingerbread, often decorated with icing and candy.

Video

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vuN2JZRxQFM&ab_channel=SmashingEnglish%21FreeandFunEnglishLessons%21

We see angels all the time at Christmas a lot of people like to put angels at the top of their Christmas tree.

Baubles are things that we put on our Christmas tree to decorate the tree.

If you go to a dinner table on Christmas Day definitely in this country you will see crackers.

Decorations on the tree or decorations around the house.

If you see the Will Ferrell film you know exactly what an elf is.